PART II

5 REGISTRATION UNDER THE ACT

4. (1) Every taxable person, other than a taxable person referred to in paragraph (a) of section 2, who, carries on or carries out any activity referred to in section 2 (in this Act referred to as a “taxable activity”) shall be required to be registered under this Act by making an application for such purpose to the Commissioner-General of Inland Revenue (in this Act referred to as the “Commissioner-General”) in the specified form-
- 10
- (a) not later than fifteen days from the date of operation of this Act, in the case of a taxable person whose aggregate of the turnover, within the twelve months period immediately prior to the date of operation of this Act, exceeded one hundred and twenty million rupees;
- 15
- (b) not later than fifteen days from the date on which the aggregate of the turnover for a quarter exceeds or is likely to exceed thirty million rupees, in the case of a taxable person to whom paragraph (a) does not apply.
- 20
- (2) Where the Commissioner-General is of the opinion that the turnover of any person referred to in subsection (1) relates to a single isolated transaction, such turnover may be excluded in calculating the total turnover of such person for the purpose of registration under this section.
- 25
- (3) The Commissioner-General shall-
- 30

Taxable persons to be registered

(a) upon receipt of an application by any person under subsection (1); or

(b) where an application has not been received under subsection (1), but the Commissioner-General is of the opinion, having regard to the nature of the activities carried on or carried out by such person, that such person is required to be registered under this Act, register such person with effect from such date as the Commissioner-General may determine (in this Act referred to as a “registered person”).

5. (1) Any registered person may make an application in the specified form to the Commissioner-General to have his registration cancelled, at any time after the lapse of a period of twelve months following the date of registration, where-

(a) such registered person has ceased to carry on or carry out a taxable activity referred to in section 2; or

(b) the aggregate turnover of such registered person during each immediately preceding four quarters of the relevant quarter does not exceed hundred and twenty million rupees.

(2) The Commissioner-General-

(a) shall, on receipt of an application under subsection (1); or

(b) may at any time, and upon being satisfied with the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) cancel such registration.

(3) The Commissioner-General may refuse to cancel the registration of any person, where the Commissioner-General is not satisfied that the conditions specified in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (1) exist.

5 (4) Where the Commissioner-General cancels the registration of a taxable person, he shall inform such person of the date of cancellation of the registration by registered post or by electronic means.

10 6. Notwithstanding the cancellation of registration under section 5, a taxable person shall be liable for any act done or omitted to be done under this Act while he remained a registered person under this Act. Liability not affected by cancellation of registration

7. Every registered person shall notify the Commissioner-General in writing or by electronic means of any change – Registered taxable person to notify certain changes

15 (a) of the name, address and place at which any taxable activity is carried on or carried out by such person;

(b) of the nature of the taxable activity carried on or carried out by such person;

20 (c) of the person authorized to sign returns and other documents in respect of any activity carried on or carried out by such person; and

(d) of ownership of the taxable activity carried on or carried out by such person, not later than fourteen days after the occurrence of such change.

PART III

RETURNS AND INFORMATION

8. (1) Every registered person shall furnish to the Commissioner-General a return either in writing or by electronic means for every quarter on or before the twentieth day of the month after the end of each relevant quarter. Every such return shall be in the form specified by the Commissioner-General. Returns and information to be furnished
- (2) Every registered person who furnishes such return under subsection (1) which is not in such form shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act, not to have furnished a return as required by subsection (1).
- (3) The Assistant Commissioner shall issue a notice to a person referred to in subsection (2) requiring such person to furnish within fourteen days of receipt of such notice, a return as specified in subsection (1).
- (4) The Assistant Commissioner shall acknowledge receipt of the return only upon receipt of a proper return as specified in subsection (1) which shall be considered a valid return for the purposes of this Act.
- (5) For the purposes of obtaining full information in respect of the turnover of any registered person, the Assistant Commissioner may give notice in writing or by electronic means to such person requiring him –
- (a) to produce for examination or transmit to the Assistant Commissioner, within the period specified in such notice any books of accounts whether contained in a manual, mechanical or electronic format or combination thereof, trade lists, stock lists, registers, invoices, cheques, bank statements, paying-in-slips, accounts, auditors' reports or other documents in his possession as may be specified in order to verify the entries in such books, documents and accounts; or

(b) to attend in person or by an authorized representative at such place and on such date and at such time as may be specified in the notice for the purpose of being examined regarding the taxable activity carried on or carried out by that person.

(6) An Assistant Commissioner may retain in his custody as long as such retention is necessary for the purpose of this Act any books of accounts whether contained in a manual, mechanical or electronic format or combination thereof, trade lists, stock lists, registers, invoices, cheques, bank statements, paying-in-slips, accounts, auditors' reports or other documents in his possession as may be specified in order to verify the entries in such books, documents or accounts.

(7) A return, statement or form purporting to be furnished under this Act by or on behalf of any registered person shall for all purposes be deemed to have been furnished by that person or by his authority, as the case may be, unless the contrary is proved, and any registered person signing such return, statement or form shall be deemed to be cognizant of all matters contained therein.

(8) Where any registered person fails to comply with the provisions of this section or fails to comply with the requirements of a notice given to such person, the Commissioner-General may –

(a) impose on such person a penalty of a sum not exceeding fifty thousand rupees; and

(b) give notice in writing or by electronic means to such person of the imposition of such penalty and require such person –

(i) to pay such penalty; and

- (ii) to comply with the requirements of this section within such period as may be specified in such notice.

(9) The Commissioner-General may reduce or annul any 5 penalty imposed on any registered person under paragraph
 (a) of subsection (8) if such person proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner-General that his failure to comply with the provisions of this section was due to circumstances beyond his control and that he has subsequently complied 10 with the provisions.

PART IV

ASSESSMENT OF LEVY

9. (1) Where-

- (a) any registered person who, in the opinion of the 15 Assistant Commissioner is chargeable with the levy, fails to furnish a return for the relevant quarter; or
  - (b) any registered person, who is chargeable with the 20 levy, furnishes a return in respect of any relevant quarter but fails to pay the levy fully or partly for that relevant quarter; or
  - (c) any registered person requests the Commissioner-General in writing or by electronic means to make any alteration or addition to any return furnished by such person for the relevant quarter,
- 25 the Assistant Commissioner may assess the amount of the levy, which such person, in the opinion of the Assistant Commissioner, ought to have paid for that relevant quarter and shall, by notice in writing or by electronic means, require 30 such person to pay such amount forthwith. The amount so assessed in respect of such person for the relevant quarter shall, be deemed to be the amount of the levy payable by him for that relevant quarter.

Power of Assistant Commissioner
 to make assessment

(2) The notice issued under subsection (1) may refer any penalty imposed under section 18.

(3) Where an assessment is made under subsection (1) the difference between the amount so assessed and the amount paid by such person as the levy for the relevant quarter shall be the levy in default for that relevant quarter.

10. (1) Where it appears to the Assistant Commissioner that a registered person chargeable with the levy has, for the relevant quarter, paid as levy an amount less than the due amount of the levy payable by him or chargeable from him for that quarter, the Assistant Commissioner may, assess such person at the additional amount at which, according to the opinion of the Assistant Commissioner, the levy ought to have been paid by such person. The Assistant Commissioner shall give such person a notice of such assessment accordingly.

Additional assessments

(2) Where an assessment is made under subsection (1), the amount so assessed shall be deemed to be the levy in default in respect of such person for that relevant quarter and accordingly such person shall, from the date on which such person ought to have paid the levy for that relevant quarter, be liable to the penalty in respect to such amount as specified in section 18.

11. Where the Assistant Commissioner does not accept a return furnished by any registered person and makes an additional assessment on such person for the relevant quarter under section 10, the Assistant Commissioner shall communicate to such person in writing or by electronic means the reasons therefor.

Assistant Commissioner to state reasons

12. Where the Assistant Commissioner is of the opinion that a registered person has -

(a) sold any article or provided any service for a value less than the open market value of such article or service or for no value; or

Power of the Assistant Commissioner to determine the open market value

(b) entered into a transaction, between two associated persons, in respect of which the sale of any article or the provision of any service has been made, in order to avoid the payment of the levy, the Assistant 5 Commissioner shall, having regard to the circumstances of such transaction and the time period of the sale of such article or the provision of such service determine the open market value of such article or service on which the levy shall be charged.

10 13. Where the Assistant Commissioner is of the opinion that any transaction which reduces or would have the effect of reducing the amount of levy payable by any person is artificial or fictitious or that any disposition is not in fact given effect to, he may disregard any such transaction or 15 disposition and the parties to the transaction or disposition shall be assessable accordingly.

Certain transactions and dispositions to be disregarded

14. The production of any document in writing or by electronic means, under the hand of the Commissioner-General purporting to be a copy of or extract from any return 20 or assessment made under this Act shall be admissible in all courts and shall be sufficient evidence of the original.

Evidence of returns and assessments

15. (1) Where any registered person has furnished a return under section 8 in respect of the relevant quarter for levy in respect of any period, it shall not be lawful for the Assistant 25 Commissioner, to make an additional assessment after the expiration of three years from the end of the relevant quarter in respect of which the return is furnished.

Limitation of time for additional assessment

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) where the Assistant Commissioner is of the opinion that a 30 person has willfully or fraudulently failed to make a full and true disclosure of all the material facts necessary to determine the amount of levy payable by him for any relevant quarter, it shall be lawful for the Assistant Commissioner to make an additional assessment at any time.

PART V

PAYMENT AND COLLECTION OF THE LEVY

16. Every registered person shall account for levy on an Accounting basis accrual basis.

5        17. (1) Every registered person shall, notwithstanding Payment of the levy that no assessment has been made on such person for the relevant quarter, pay the levy payable by such person on or before the twentieth day of the immediately succeeding month of the relevant month of that quarter to the 10 Commissioner-General, in such manner as may be specified by him.

(2) Any levy not paid as set out in subsection (1) shall be in default and the registered person by whom such levy is payable or where any levy is payable by more than one 15 person, each such person shall be deemed to be a defaulter for the purposes of this Act.

18. (1) Where the payment of any levy is in default, the Penalty for default
defaulter shall, in addition to such levy in default pay as penalty –

- 20        (a) a sum equivalent to ten per centum of the amount in default; and
- (b) where the amount in default is not paid before the last day of the month succeeding the month in which such levy has begun to be in default, a further sum, 25 equivalent to two per centum of the amount in default in respect of each period ending on the last day of each succeeding month or part of such period
during which it is in default:

Provided however, that the total amount payable as 30 penalty under this subsection shall in no case exceed one hundred per centum of the levy in default and any such amount may be waived or reduced if the Commissioner-General is satisfied that by reason of any special circumstances in which the default occurred waiver or reduction of such amount would be just and equitable.

- 5 (2) Where upon the final determination of an appeal under Part VII, any levy in default to which any sum or sums under subsection (1) has or have been added is reduced, then such sum or sums shall be calculated on the levy so reduced.

- 10 19. (1) The Director General of Customs shall collect from every taxable person, the levy chargeable from such person in respect of every article imported by such person, at the time such article is imported, and shall make an endorsement on the import invoice relating to such article specifying the amount so collected.

Collection of the levy by the Director-General of Customs

- 15 (2) Any amount collected under subsection (1) shall be deemed to be the levy chargeable in respect of the turnover arising from the importation of such article and shall be deemed to have been paid by such person to the Commissioner-General on the day on which such amount 20 was so collected.

- (3) Any amount collectible under subsection (1) shall, for the purpose of collection and recovery of such amount and notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, be deemed to be customs duty chargeable under the Customs 25 Ordinance (Chapter 235) and accordingly, the provisions of the Customs Ordinance (Chapter 235) shall apply to the collection and recovery of such amount.

- (4) Where any article imported into Sri Lanka is sold –

- (a) by the Commissioner-General;
- 30 (b) by the Director General of Customs for the recovery of any duty, levy or any charge collectible under the Customs Ordinance (Chapter 235); or

- (c) by the Sri Lanka Ports Authority established by the Sri Lanka Ports Authority Act, No. 51 of 1979, for the recovery of any dues collectible under that Act, the purchaser of such article shall be deemed to be a person referred to in paragraph (a) of section 2, and the provisions of this Act shall apply to such person accordingly.

20. The turnover arising from any Islamic financial transaction shall be subject to levy in a similar manner as equivalent in substance to non-Islamic financial transactions.

10 PART VI

APPEALS

21. (1) Any registered person or any person whose registration has been cancelled under this Act may, if he is dissatisfied with any assessment, additional assessment or penalty, as the case may be, made in respect of him under this Act, appeal against such assessment, additional assessment or penalty, as the case may be, to the Commissioner-General within thirty days after the service of notice of such assessment, additional assessment or imposition of penalty, as the case may be. Such person shall, notwithstanding such appeal, pay the levy charged by such assessment or additional assessment together with any penalty imposed on him by this Act.

(2) The Commissioner-General, upon being satisfied that, owing to absence from Sri Lanka, sickness or other reasonable cause, the appellant was prevented from appealing within the time period specified in subsection (1), shall grant an extension of time for preferring the appeal.

(3) Every appeal shall be preferred to the Commissioner-General by a petition in writing or by electronic means and shall state precisely the grounds of such appeal.

(4) The receipt of every appeal shall be acknowledged within thirty days of its receipt and where so acknowledged, the date of the letter of acknowledgement shall for the purpose of this section, be deemed to be the date of receipt 5 of such appeal:

Provided however, if the receipt of any appeal is not acknowledged as specified in this subsection, such appeal shall be deemed to have been received by the Commissioner-General on the day on which it was delivered to the 10 Commissioner-General.

(5) Where the appeal against the assessment has been made in the absence of a return, the appeal shall be accompanied by a return with the proof of payment of the levy and penalty due on such return.

15 (6) Every person preferring an appeal under subsection (1) shall unless such person has already done so, pay to the Commissioner-General the amount of the levy payable by such person on the basis of the return furnished by him for the relevant quarter together with any penalty thereon
20 accrued up to the date of such notice of assessment, and shall attach, to the appeal a receipt in proof of such payment:

Provided however, the Commissioner-General, upon being satisfied that owing to serious financial hardship suffered by the appellant at or about the time of such notice 25 of assessment or, owing to other reasonable cause the appellant was prevented from paying such levy and penalty, may grant an extension of time for the payment of such levy and penalty thereon accrued up to the date of payment, and the receipt furnished within such extended time shall, for 30 the purposes of subsections (1), (5) and (6), be deemed to have been attached to the appeal.

(7) Every appeal which was not made within the period specified in subsection (1) or does not conform to the provisions of subsections (3), (5) and (6) shall not be valid.

(8) Upon receipt of a valid appeal, the Commissioner-General may cause inquiry to be made by an Assistant Commissioner, other than the Assistant Commissioner who made such assessment against which the appeal is preferred
5 and if, in the course of such inquiry, an agreement is reached as to the matters specified in the appeal, the necessary adjustment of the assessment shall be made.

(9) Where no agreement is reached between the appellant and the Assistant Commissioner in the manner specified in 10 subsection (8), the Commissioner-General shall fix a time and place for the hearing of the appeal.

(10) The appellant may attend the hearing of the appeal in person or by an authorized representative. The Commissioner-General may, if he thinks fit, from time to 15 time, adjourn the hearing of an appeal for such time and place as he shall fix. In any case in which an authorized representative attends on behalf of the appellant, the Commissioner-General may adjourn the hearing of the appeal and may, if he considers that the personal attendance of the 20 appellant is necessary for the determination of the appeal, require that the appellant shall attend in person at the time and place fixed for the adjourned hearing of the appeal. If the appellant or his authorized representative fails to attend at the time and place fixed for the hearing or any adjourned
25 hearing of the appeal, or if the appellant fails to attend in person when required so to attend by the Commissioner-General, the Commissioner-General shall dismiss the appeal:

Provided however, if the appellant, within a reasonable time after the dismissal of an appeal, satisfies the 30 Commissioner-General that he or his authorized representative was prevented from due attendance at the hearing or at any adjourned hearing of such appeal by reason of absence from Sri Lanka, sickness, or other reasonable cause, the Commissioner-General may vacate the order of 35 dismissal and fix a time and place for the hearing of the appeal.

(11) The Commissioner-General shall have power to summon any person, whom he may consider able to give evidence in respect of the appeal, to attend before him and examine such person on oath or otherwise. Any person so attending may be allowed by the Commissioner-General any reasonable expenses necessarily incurred by such person in so attending.

(12) The Commissioner-General may -

- 10       (a) before making his determination on any appeal, if he considers it necessary so to do, require any person, by notice given in writing or by electronic means to produce for examination, or to transmit to the Commissioner-General within the period specified in such notice, any such deeds, plans, 15 instruments, books of accounts, trade lists, stock lists, registers, cheques, paying-in-slips, auditors' reports or other documents in his possession as may be specified in such notice;
- 20       (b) obtain the assistance of a Commissioner, a Senior Deputy Commissioner, a Deputy Commissioner or an Assistant Commissioner who is familiar with the issues involved in such hearing of an appeal.

(13) Where the Commissioner-General hears the evidence of the appellant or of any other person in respect of the 25 appeal, he shall maintain or cause to be maintained a record of such evidence.

(14) In determining an appeal under this section, the Commissioner-General may confirm, reduce, increase or annul the assessment appealed against and shall give notice 30 in writing or by electronic means to the appellant of his determination on the appeal.

(15) Every appeal preferred under this section, shall be agreed to or determined by the Commissioner-General, within a period of two years from the date on which such appeal is received by the Commissioner- General, unless the 5 agreement or determination of such appeal depends on –

- (a) the decision of a competent court on any matter relating to or connected with or arising from such appeal and referred to it by the Commissioner-General or the appellant; or
- 10        (b) the furnishing of any document or the taking of any action -
  - (i) by the appellant, upon being required to do so by the Commissioner-General or an Assistant Commissioner by notice given in writing to 15        such appellant (such notice being given not later than six months prior to the expiry of two years from the date on which the appeal is received by the Commissioner-General); or
  - 20        (ii) by any other person, other than the Commissioner-General or an Assistant Commissioner.

(16) For the purposes of subsection (15) where an extension of time has been granted to an appellant for the payment of the levy, the date of receipt in proof of the 25 payment of levy shall be deemed to be the date of receipt of such appeal.

(17) Where any appeal is not agreed to or determined within the period specified in subsection (15), the appeal shall be deemed to have been allowed and levy charged 30 accordingly.

22. Any person aggrieved by the determination of the Commissioner-General under section 21 may appeal against such determination to the Tax Appeals Commission established under the Tax Appeals Commission Act, No. 23 of 2011.

Appeals to the Tax Appeals
Commission

23. Where –

Finality of
assessment

(a) no valid appeal to the Commissioner-General has been preferred under this Part against an assessment or an additional assessment, such assessment or additional assessment; or

(b) the Commissioner-General has determined the amount of the levy on appeal, the assessment made, reduced, increased or confirmed, as the case may be, on such appeal, shall be treated as final for all purposes of this Act:

Provided however, subject to the limitation of time specified in section 15, nothing in this section shall prevent an Assistant Commissioner from making an assessment or additional assessment for any relevant quarter if it does not involve any matter which has already been determined on appeal.

PART VII

RECOVERY OF LEVY

24. (1) For the purposes of this Part “levy” includes the penalty imposed under this Act.

Recovery of
levy

(2) Whenever the Commissioner-General issues or submits, as the case may be, a certificate under section 27 or 28 or a notice under section 29, he shall at the same time issue to the defaulter a notification thereof by personal service or by registered post or by telegraph or electronic means so however, the non-receipt of such notification by the defaulter shall not invalidate proceedings under this section.

5 25. Any levy in default shall be a first charge on all the assets of the defaulter: Levy to be a first charge

Provided that, –

- 10 (a) such charge shall not extend to or affect any assets sold by such person to a bona fide purchaser for value, prior to the seizure of the same in accordance with the provisions of section 27;
- (b) as regards immovable property, the levy shall not rank in priority to any lease or encumbrance created bona fide for value and registered prior to the date of the seizure; or
- 15 (c) as regards movable property, where the levy for the relevant quarters for more than five years is in default, the levy for relevant quarters within five years only to be selected by the Commissioner-General, shall rank in priority to any lien or
- 20 encumbrance created bona fide for value prior to the date of default of such levy.

25 26. (1) Where any levy is in default, the Commissioner-General shall, before proceeding to recover such levy, issue a notice in writing or by electronic means to the defaulter stating – Notice to defaulter

- (a) the particulars of such levy; and
- (b) that action is being contemplated to recover such levy.

30 (2) Where an assessment has been made and the defaulter has not appealed within the specified time period against the assessment in respect of which such levy is charged, he may, within thirty days of the date of such notice make any objection to the Commissioner-General in respect of the levy so charged and the Commissioner-General shall 5 notwithstanding the provisions of section 34 consider such objections and give his decision thereon which shall be final.

27. (1) Where any levy is in default, the Commissioner-General may issue a certificate to a Divisional Secretary, an 10 Assistant Divisional Secretary, a Fiscal, a Deputy Fiscal or a levy collector containing particulars of such levy and the name and address of the defaulter empowering the officer to whom such certificate is issued to recover or required to cause the levy to be recovered from the defaulter named in 15 the certificate by seizure and sale of his movable property.

Recovery of levy by seizure and sale

(2) The seizure referred to in subsection (1) shall be effected in such manner as the said officer shall deem most expedient in that behalf and any property so seized shall be kept for seven days at the costs and charges of the defaulter.
20 If the defaulter fails to pay the said levy in default together with the costs and charges within the said seven days, the Divisional Secretary, the Assistant Divisional Secretary, the Fiscal, the Deputy Fiscal or the levy collector, as the case may be, shall cause such property to be sold by public 25 auction.

(3) The sum realized by the sale shall be applied –

(i) firstly in payment of the costs and charges of seizing, keeping and selling the property; and

(ii) secondly in satisfaction of the levy in default,

30 and any balance shall be paid to the defaulter.

(4) Where the Commissioner-General is of the opinion that recovery of any levy by the means specified in subsection (2) is impracticable or inexpedient, he may submit a certificate to the District Court having jurisdiction in the district where the defaulter resides or in which any property movable or immovable owned by the defaulter is situated, containing such particulars of levy and the name and address of the defaulter, and the Court shall thereupon issue a writ of execution to the Fiscal authorizing and requiring him to seize and sell all or any of the property movable and immovable of the defaulter or such part thereof as he may deem necessary for recovery of the levy, and the provisions of sections 226 to 297 of the Civil Procedure Code shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such seizure and sale.

(5) For the purposes of this section, “movable property” shall include plant and machinery whether fixed to a building or not.

28. (1) Where the Commissioner-General is of the opinion in any case that recovery of levy in default by seizure and sale is impracticable or inexpedient or where the full amount of the levy in default has not been recovered, he may submit a certificate containing particulars of such levy and the name and last known place of business or residence of the defaulter, to a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the division in which such place of business or residence of the defaulter is situated.

Proceedings
for recovery
before a Magistrate

(2) (a) The Magistrate shall thereupon summon such defaulter before him to show cause as to why further proceedings for the recovery of the levy should not be taken against him.

(b) If sufficient cause is shown, the levy in default shall be deemed to be a fine imposed by a sentence of the Magistrate on such defaulter for an offence punishable with fine only or not punishable with imprisonment and the provisions of subsection (1) of section 291 (except paragraphs (a), (d) and (i) thereof) of the Code of Criminal

Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, relating to default of payment of a fine imposed for such an offence, shall thereupon apply, and the Magistrate may make any direction which, by the provisions of that subsection, he could have made at the 5 time of imposing such sentence.

(c) Nothing in subsections (2) to (5) of section 291 of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979, shall apply in any case referred to in this subsection.

(d) In any case referred to in this subsection, the Magistrate
10 may grant time for the payment of the fine in installments.

(3) Nothing in this section shall authorize or require the Magistrate in any proceeding thereunder to consider, examine or decide the correctness of any statement in the certificate of the Commissioner-General or to postpone or 15 defer such proceeding for a period exceeding thirty days, by reason only of the fact that an appeal is pending against the assessment in respect of which the levy in default is charged.

(4) The Court may be required bail to be given as a condition precedent allowing time under subsection (2) for 20 showing cause for the payment of the fine and the provisions of Chapter XXXIV of the Code of Criminal Procedure Act, No. 15 of 1979 shall apply where the defaulter is so required to be given bail.

(5) Where payment of the fine is directed to pay in 25 installments under paragraph (d) of subsection (2) and default is made in the payment of any one installment, the same proceedings may be taken as if default had been made in payment of all the installments then remaining unpaid.

29. (1) Where the levy payable by any person is in default
30 and it appears to the Commissioner-General to be probable that any person –

Recovery of levy out of debts

- (a) owes or is about to pay money to the defaulter or his agent;
- (b) holds money for or on account of the defaulter or his agent;
- 5        (c) holds money for or on account of some other person for payment to the defaulter or his agent; or
- (d) has authority from some other person to pay money to the defaulter or his agent,

10        the Commissioner-General may give to such person, a notice in writing or by electronic means, a copy of which shall be sent by post to the defaulter, requiring him to pay any such moneys not exceeding the amount of the levy in default to the officer named in such notice.

15        (2) The notice shall apply to all such moneys which are in the hands of such person or due from such person at the date of receipt of such notice, or come into his hands or become due from him or are about to be paid by him at any time within a period of three months after the date of such notice.

20        (3) Any person who has made any payment in pursuance of this section shall be deemed to have acted under the authority of the defaulter and of all other persons concerned, and shall be indemnified in respect of such payment against all proceedings, civil or criminal, notwithstanding the 25        provisions of any written law, contract or agreement.

(4) Where any person to whom a notice has been given under subsection (1), is unable to comply therewith owing to the fact that moneys in question do not come into his hands or custody or become due from him during the period
30        referred to in subsection (2), he shall within fourteen days of the expiration thereof give notice in writing to the Commissioner-General appraising him of the facts.

(5) Where any person to whom a notice has been given under subsection (1) is unable to comply therewith and has failed to give notice to the Commissioner-General as required by subsection (4) or where such person has deducted or could 5 have deducted the levy to which the notice relates or any part thereof and has not paid over as required by the Commissioner-General the amount of such levy or part thereof within fourteen days after the expiration of the period referred to in subsection (2), such person shall, if he is an
10 individual, be liable or where such person is a company or body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporated the secretary, manager or the principal officer of such company or body be personally liable, for the whole of the levy which such person has been required to deduct, and such levy may 15 be recovered from such individual, secretary, manager or other principal officer, as the case may be, by all means provided for in this Act.

(6) For the purposes of this section, the expression “defaulter” shall be deemed to include the agent of a person
20 who is in default and the provisions of this section shall apply in any case where the levy which would have been payable by any person if he were alive is in default, and for the purpose of the application of these provisions in any such case, the expression “defaulter” in subsection (1) 25 means –

- (a) the executor or administrator of such deceased person; or
- (b) any person who takes possession of, or intermeddles with, the property of such deceased person; or
- 30 (c) any person who has applied or is entitled to apply to a District Court for the grant or resealing of probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of such deceased person.

30. (1) Where the Commissioner-General is of the opinion that any person is about to or likely to leave Sri Lanka without paying the levy due from him, the Commissioner-General may submit a certificate containing particulars of such levy and the name of such person to a Magistrate, who shall on receipt thereof issue a direction to the Inspector-General of Police to take such measures as may be necessary to prevent such person from leaving Sri Lanka without paying the levy or furnishing security to the satisfaction of the Commissioner-General for payment thereof.
- (2) The Commissioner-General shall, at the time of submission of the certificate to the Magistrate, issue to such person a notification thereof by personal service, or registered post or telegraph or by electronic means but the non-receipt of any such notification by such person shall not invalidate proceedings under this section.
- (3) The production of a certificate signed by the Commissioner-General stating that the levy has been paid or that security has been furnished for the payment of the levy or payment of the levy to an officer in charge of a police station shall be sufficient authority for allowing such person to leave Sri Lanka.
- (4) Any officer in charge of a police station to whom the amount of any levy specified in such certificate has been paid shall forthwith pay such amount to the Commissioner-General.
31. Where the Commissioner-General is of the opinion that application of any one of the means of recovery specified in this Act has failed or is likely to fail to secure payment of the full amount of levy due from any person, he may proceed to recover any sum remaining unpaid, by any means of recovery specified in this Act, notwithstanding that an order has been made by a Magistrate under section 28 and carried into effect.

Recovery of

leaving Sri Lanka

Use of more than one means for the
levy

- 32. (1) Where a body corporate has not paid any levy on or before the due date as specified in section 17, it shall be lawful to proceed under all or any of the provisions of this Act against a manager, director, secretary or any other principal officer of such body corporate, as if such officer is responsible for such default unless he proves the contrary to the satisfaction of the Commissioner-General notwithstanding anything in any other written law relating to such body corporate.
- Recovery of levy from the principal officer and others
- 10      (2) Where an unincorporated body of persons has not paid any levy on or before the due date as specified in section 17, it shall be lawful to proceed under all or any of the provisions of this Act against any partner or office-bearer of such unincorporated body of persons as if he is responsible
- 15      for such default unless he proves the contrary to the satisfaction of the Commissioner-General, notwithstanding anything in any other written law.
- 33. The Commissioner-General may, by notice given in writing or by electronic means to any person, require that
- 20      person within the period specified in such notice to furnish any information which the Commissioner-General may require for the purpose of recovering any levy due from such person or any other person.
- Power of Commissioner-General to obtain information
for the recovery of
levy
- 34. The Commissioner General shall not commence any
- 25      action under sections 27, 28, 29 and 32 of this Act, for the recovery of levy in default where a period of five years has lapsed from the completion of three months from the end of the relevant quarter in which the assessment by which such levy was charged or levied becomes final and conclusive
- 30      under section 23.
- Time limit
for the recovery of a levy in
default
- 35. (1) The Commissioner-General may, by writing under his hand, delegate to any Assistant Commissioner any of the powers or functions conferred on or assigned to the Commissioner-General by this Part.
- Commissioner-
General to delegate powers and functions

(2) Every Assistant Commissioner to whom any power or function has been delegated under subsection (1) shall exercise or discharge such power or function subject to the general or special directions of the Commissioner-General.

- 5      36. Any registered person who has paid any levy or penalty in excess of any amount which he was liable to pay for any relevant quarter shall be treated as an advance payment made for any quarter succeeding the relevant quarter.
- Levy or penalty paid in excess to be treated as an advance payment

PART VIII

10      LIABILITY OF CERTAIN PERSONS TO PAY LEVY

- 37. (1) Where any registered person chargeable with the levy dies, the executor of such deceased person shall, in respect of all relevant quarters prior to the date of death of such person, be chargeable with levy which such person
- 15      would be chargeable if he were alive, and shall be liable to do all acts, matters and things which such person if he were alive, would be liable to do under this Act:
- Liability of executor to pay levy

Provided that, –

- 20      (a) no proceedings shall be instituted against the executor in respect of any act or default of action of the deceased person;
- 25      (b) no assessment or additional assessment in respect of a period prior to the date of such person's death shall be made after three years from the end of the relevant quarter in which the death occurred; and
- (c) the liability of the executor under this section shall be limited to the sum of –
- (i) the deceased person's estate in his possession or control at the date when notice is given to him that liability to levy will arise under this section; and

- (ii) any part of the estate which may have passed to a beneficiary.

5 (2) Where an executor on behalf of the estate of a deceased person carries on any taxable activity which is a part of such estate, such executor shall, in respect of such taxable activity, be chargeable with the levy with which such person would be chargeable if he were alive.

10 38. (1) Where any taxable activity in respect of which levy is payable is carried on or carried out by any person on behalf of any other person as the agent of such other person, the first mentioned person shall be chargeable with the levy in respect of that taxable activity in like manner and to the 15 like amount as the second mentioned person would be chargeable under this Act.

Liability of certain persons to pay levy in respect of a taxable activity not belonging to them

(2) All the liable turnover of a non-resident person shall be assessable either directly or in the name of his agent, in or derived from Sri Lanka, whether such agent has the receipt 20 of such turnover or not, and the levy in terms of this Act so assessed whether directly or in the name of the agent shall be recoverable in the manner provided for in this Act, out of the assets of the non-resident person or from the agent. Where there are more agents than one, they may be assessed jointly 25 or severally in respect of the liable turnover of the non-resident person and shall be jointly and severally liable for levy thereon, in terms of this Act.

39. Where two or more persons act in the capacity as trustees or executors of a deceased person's estate, they may 30 be charged jointly and severally with the levy with which they are chargeable in the capacity under this Act and shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of such levy.

Trustees and executors

40. (1) Notwithstanding anything in the Companies Act, No. 7 of 2007, where a company is wound up and where any levy to which that company is liable cannot be recovered, then, every person who was a director of the company at any time during the period in respect of which such levy is payable shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of such levy unless such person proves that the default in payment of the levy cannot be attributed to any gross neglect, malfeasance or breach of duty on his part in relation to the affairs of the company, and the provisions of this Act relating to collection and recovery of levy shall apply accordingly.

Persons liable to pay levy upon liquidation of a company or dissolution of a body of persons

(2) Where a body of persons is dissolved and where any levy to which that body of persons is liable cannot be recovered, then, every person who was a partner or an office-bearer of such body of persons at any time during the period in respect of which such levy is payable shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of such levy unless he proves that the default in payment of the levy cannot be attributed to any gross neglect, malfeasance or breach of duty on his part in relation to the affairs of such unincorporated body and the provisions of this Act relating to collection and recovery of levy shall apply accordingly.

41. Any act or thing required by or under this Act to be done by any person shall, if such person is an incapacitated person, be deemed to be required to be done by the trustee of such incapacitated person.

Who may act for incapacitated persons

42. Any act or thing required by or under this Act to be done by any person shall, in the case of two or more persons in partnership, be deemed to be required to be done by the precedent partner of such partnership:

Precedent partner to act on behalf of partnership

Provided that, any person to whom a notice has been given under the provisions of this Act as a precedent partner of a partnership shall be deemed to be the precedent partner thereof unless he proves that he is not a partner of such partnership or that some other person in Sri Lanka is the precedent partner thereof.

43. (1) The secretary, manager, director or other principal officer of every company or body of persons shall be liable to do all such acts, matters or things as are required to be done under the provisions of this Act by such company or body of persons:

Principal officer to act on behalf of a company or body of persons

Provided however, any person to whom a notice has been given under the provisions of this Act on behalf of a company or body of persons shall be deemed to be the principal officer thereof unless he proves that he has no connection with such company or body of persons or that some other person resident in Sri Lanka is the principal officer thereof.

(2) Where an offence under this Act is committed by a company or body of persons, every person who at the time of the commission of the offence was the secretary, manager, director or other principal officer of the company or body of persons shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence unless he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge and that he exercised all such diligence to prevent the commission of that offence as he ought to have exercised having regard to the nature of his functions in such capacity.
